

USPRA presents a Four Part Web Training Series in partnership with Magellan Health Services

Forwarding the Recovery Paradigm- A Recovery Culture in Action

Forwarding the Recovery Paradigm: A Recovery Culture in Action is the third series of webinars to be developed by USPRA in collaboration with Magellan Health Services. Last year's webinar series focused on the contributions that people in recovery provide in assuring a recovery-oriented mental health system.

The 2009 series will showcase organizations who have successfully implemented a recovery culture. Each session will discuss a key concept along with the featured organization sharing how that concept is imbedded in their organizational culture. We know our participants over the past two years are committed to developing the best possible recovery orientation. It is our hope that you will learn from Recovery Innovations, Advocates, Inc., Mental Health America of Los Angeles, and Thresholds, on how you and your organization can enhance improve the way of life for people in recovery.
